

Sample of Band 6 Analyzing and Describing Data/Information Given

FORM 1

FORM 2

The pie chart illustrates the genre of books chosen by form one and form two students.

Obviously, the most popular genre of books among form one students is scientific fiction with 40% students which is in contrast with form two students who prefer romance genre at most with 36% students choose it. The least favourite genre of books among form one students is poetry which is different to form two students who choose mystery genre the least. Both of them have the same percentage that is 10%. The second most famous genre among form one students is romance with 18% students choose it while horror is the second most preferred genre among form two students with 21% students like it. The third one out of five genres of books most preferred by form one students belongs to mystery whereas the third for form two students goes to scientific fiction. The second last or the fourth one is horror genre for form one students with 15% students choose to read it which is distinct to form two students which is poetry genre. Both genres share the same percentage that is 15%.

Based on the pie chart, it shows that the age of students affect their favourite books to be chosen to be read.